MAYOR MORS OFFERS "FACTS" IN AN OPEN LETTER TO VOTERS

Arlington Heights, Ill., April 14.
Ladies and Gentlemen:

As you are doubtless aware the accompanying are candidates on the "Voters Ticket" at the coming election to be held on Tuesday, April 19, 1927. It will be noted that the undersigned and Chas. H. Lips are candidates for re-election as President and Trustee respectively, while Messrs. John G. Martens and George C. Hieber are new candidates, both well qualified to represent the people of this community. They are both men of exemplary character, hold positions of trust, possess initiative and will not shirk responsibility for their acts.

So far as Trustee Lips and the undersigned are concerned, we honestly believe that our records will serve as an index to our personal qualifications.

Our present Police Magistrate, H. J. Byrd, who is a candidate for re-election, needs no introduction. His personal qualifications are well known to all.

It might not be amiss at this time to make a few comments regarding the method pursued by the "Mors Administration" in connection with the various improvements made in Arlington Heights, and when I use that term, I mean every member constituting the personnel of the Village Council presided over by the undersigned and I will further preface my remarks by stating that the people of Arlington Heights, who have loyally supported the present Administration in the past, can share equally with the Village Council in any credit due for the many improvements which have been made, as without their hearty support Arlington Heights would not be what it is today, i. e. one of the most beautiful and progressive communities of its size in the country.

The present incumbent has followed in the footsteps of his predecessor, Honorable A. F. Volz, who, when the original sewer proposition was up some years ago, appointed a committee of fifteen (15) representative citizens to act with the Board in an advisory capacity, and this practice has been followed by the present Administration in connection with every improvement of any magnitude; in other words, while legally the Village Council constitutes a "Seven Men Board," in actual practice, it is a "People's Board," in that the people have been consulted and their views sought on every important proposition. The more recent improvements now pending are the electric light and drainage, in connection with which one public Mass Meeting has already been held, with the understanding that a further general meeting of the public will be convened as soon as more detailed information covering the various phases, especially the cost feature, is available.

Regarding the increased water supply for which a bond issue was successfully carried some time ago: This matter is receiving careful consideration and negotiations are still pending. The mere fact that a $20,000 bond issue was carried does not necessarily mean that this amount must be spent immediately, if there is no necessity thereof. The only reason for placing it at that figure was to prepare for any emergency which might arise, and if it is found that increased facilities for an adequate water supply can be secured for less money, the full amount of the bond issue need not be utilized. Incidentally, I might mention that the Village of Arlington Heights has an additional water supply which is available at any time. This was arranged for through the courtesy of the Arlington Seating Company, whereby they permitted the Village to connect with the well at that Company's plant, although at the present time we only find it necessary to draw on that supply occasionally.

The situation as regards this splendid cooperation between the people of Arlington Heights and the Village Council is rather unique, when compared with some of the other communities. If the present Administration is re-elected, you can rest assured that the general public will be taken into the confidence in the future as in the past, which can only result in common good for all.

The present Administration has been conducted in a thorough, honest, efficient, progressive and conservative manner.

PROGRESSIVENESS

That the present Administration has been progressive is best evidenced by the improvements themselves, which bear mute testimony of that fact, and by reason thereof the following results have been attained:

- (a) A great increase in population.
- (b) A great increase in building operations.
- (c) A great increase in property values.
- (d) A great stimulus given to business in general.

I think it entirely appropriate at this time to mention the fact that the present Administration was also responsible for the at-

BUSINESS MEN CONTINUE AS EASY PICKIN'S

Two weeks ago this paper published an item relative to action being taken by the Arlington Heights Business Men's association to end the "high pressure salesman pest" that come in town with an idea and take away the hard earned dollars of the local business men, giving very little in return. Such pests are still being encouraged by some of the business men. In order to make a noise big enough to awaken local people to the situation, the Herald has been given permission to publish the following facts in the hopes that the publicity given, will put an end to the gullibility of the business men and others.

Business Men Easy Marks
A stranger arrived in Arlington Heights the other day with an idea. It was a fine advertising scheme for him. He left town with 12 signed judgment notes totaling $2,496.00 that the signers were unaware of having signed. His plan may have had some merit but not "judgment note" merit, so think the even dozen of hard-headed business men who have now learned that the orders which they innocently signed are in reality judgment notes of $208 each.

A smooth talker solicited advertisements in a classified telephone directory. The directory as a catalogue of ads. may not be disputed but as a directory of telephone numbers, its value is questionable. The Illinois Bell Telephone Co. does not sanction such bootleg directories and are so utterly opposed to their circulation that they have offered legal services to advertisers who will refuse to pay for advertisements inserted therein. There were several hundred dollars more sent out of Arlington Heights upon this proposition.

Rev. Gall, pastor of St. James Catholic church announced in the Herald several months ago that any solicitor palming himself off as a Catholic priest, and claiming to have official sanction for the soliciting funds in Arlington Heights is a fakir. He asked to be notified if such a person appeared at any of the local business houses. This week, such a man did appear and collected a goodly sum of money. When Father Gall learned of the occurrence, the man had fled.

Every time one of the twelve business men who signed those notes enters the Arlington theatre, he receives a reminder of those notes that hang over his head. That clocklike advertising directory in the corner will cost each one of them $208. It is undoubtedly the most expensive clock in Arlington Heights. Mr. Heiman is not to blame in the least. He has made every effort to secure a release of the notices from the company and he has had assurances that the notes, which were obtained by alleged fraud, will be returned. The business men concerned expect to make the monthly payments as specified in the contract they thought they were signing, but they are fighting mad about the notes.

Arlington Heights is not the only town that has "fallen" for a classified telephone directory. The business men can be excused for placing an adv. in such a publication, but the fact that the price charged is greatly in excess to any value to be obtained by the advertiser, is now realized by the advertisers.

These are all instances of "high pressure" salesmanship. Note the business man would have "fallen" for the talk, if they had had the opportunity to give it a second thought. The rosy tints that were painted by the salesmen were so realistic that the business men signed upon the dotted line—and in case of the clock, upon two dotted lines.

Business Men to the Rescue
Mr. Gottlieb Schneberger of the Arlington Elevator was one of those who did the signing. He is also the one who expects to bring the "clock" company to time.

After a recent meeting of the business men's association, he frankly admitted he had swallowed the hook. But as president of the business men's association, he intends to do his part to put an end to the landing of such fish on Arlington shores by solicitors and salesmen. Acting upon the orders of the association given that night and in conjunction with a like request of the Lions Club a special committee, of which he is chairman has been appointed to approve and to disapprove all plans or pleas for funds that may be made to local business men. The identity of this committee will remain a "state" secret, but Mr. Schneberger says that every member on it is "hard-headed" and "if any Arlington Heights business man gets landed for a sucker in the future they have only themselves to blame."

Business men are asked to refuse to grant an audience, to solicitors. Just tell the caller that he must first get the approval of the "Faker" committee of the local business men's association and direct him to the office of the coal yard. In case of laudible enterprises the committee will give their O. K. Without such an O. K. give the high powered, high pressure solicitors the air," says Mr. Schneberger.

This same service is available to any householder. When a salesman or solicitor calls, refuse to listen to him unless he has an "O. K." card from the business men's com-

NEW PARTY IN FINAL STATEMENT TO VOTERS; RECORD VOTE IN SIGHT

(This column contains New Party Propaganda, prepared by the Publicity Department of the New Party.)

The New Party has entered a full ticket in next week's election in an effort to Smash the Ring that has yielded automatic control of our village for sixteen years and is bringing its campaign to a close with complete assurance of spectacular success.

The New Party candidates are men of vision who can look into the dim future without losing sight of conditions clearly at hand.

The New Party candidates do not claim to be super-men neither are they an organized Kickers Club. They are men of good "uncommon" sense.

They represent a definite program—they have taken a stand before the public eye.

The New Party platform suggests the major issues of the campaign. They have restrained their ambitions to cut loose in the campaign with a volume of vociferous argument.

Perhaps a bit of unleashing in the final bit of publicity will tend to bring the already heated political pot to a boil. Therefore—

WHY do we suffer the expense of a special election in an emergency which every one recognized in our water supply and—

WHY the request for a bond issue without knowing the remedy—and—

WHY—Given the $20,000 to put our water works in shape and having no plan—WHY after a full year's time has not a definite plan evolved.

When the East wind blows, where are our ambitious common men? Are they chronic asthma sufferers? The sewer problem in Arlington Heights is a big one and an urgent one. The health of our entire community is affected by the sanitary conditions in our village. Why was the Weller Creek Drainage District given the cold shoulder when they offered the only reasonable solution to this pressing problem?

The poorest advertising any community can offer to its prospective and new citizens is—"We're Broke." A change in financial policy, possible only through a change in administration will prove a positive, tho' perhaps slow recovery from this deplorable condition. How to produce electricity with an oil burning power plant designed to pump water while an electrically operated pump substitutes for the oil engine, is a demonstrated folly in the municipal pumping station.

Twentieth Century methods in street lighting have elsewhere had a quarter century test and should presently emerge from the experimental stage in our village.

WHY we ask it is necessary to have an efficient Chief of Police for one policeman.

Fire fighting is serious business and if our equipment is not maintained in a state of high efficiency mittee. If the business men and householders co-operate, salesmen and solicitors will soon learn that the closed season for fishing suckers in Arlington Heights lasts from January 1st to December 31st.

Trade at Home Club
The Herald office has a quantity of "Trade at Home Club Cards" that will be given free to any who call. One of these cards at your door will keep solicitors away and save you both time and money.

This egg hunt is planned to create a lot of pleasure for the boys and girls of Arlington Heights. The hunters will not alone receive for "keeps" every Easter egg they will find, but there will be many prizes. Contestants will enter the hunt for

The joy they find in it." No more than two prizes will be allowed a single person. The contestants will meet at the Herald office at two o'clock. They will be led to the hunting grounds by Officer Skoug. Owners of autos are asked to act as chauffeurs. Each child should have a basket or sack for the eggs they find.

This egg hunt is in reality the postponed dog derby that did not materialize last February on account of lack of snow. The prize money that was contributed by the business men for the derby will be used. Those who offered merchandise will be excused this time, the committee reserving the right to keep such merchandise prizes "on tap" for future community contests. If there are any who desire to help out in the money prizes, for the egg hunt, their money will be gladly accepted and the number of prizes increased to that extent.

The meanest thing in the world is greed.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS HOTLY CONTESTED IN MANY LOCAL TOWNS

It will be a "hot" day next Tuesday whether the sun shines or not. Nearly every village in this section of the state has an exciting municipal election. The recent Dever-Thompson battle in Chicago promises to be a tea party compared with the battle royal that will be fought in some of the suburbs. The only similarity between Chicago and the country towns is the fact that there are two parties, each exerting its utmost to obtain control of municipal affairs. There the similarity ends. Rotten politics were freely aired in the Chicago contest. In the majority of the suburbs the fights are clean cut. There will not be mud splattered candidates or reputations arising out of the ruins of elections. The country suburbs are so busy growing they have not the time or inclination to "pull the house down."

No Excitement at Mt. Prospect and Bartlett
In the communities served by this paper, Mt. Prospect and Bartlett appear to be the only two towns in which the candidates have no opposition. In Mt. Prospect, William Busse, as president; John W. Pohlman, Chas. Mecklenberg, and Herman Heide as trustees are all candidates to succeed themselves.

There is also no opposition in Bartlett to the present officers, whose terms expire. They are John J. O'Brien for president; John Kramer, A. W. Sodman and H. W. Schnadt for trustees.

Schwingel Opposes Holtje at Wheeling
Mr. J. Schwingel, former mayor of Wheeling and assessor of the township will oppose Mr. L. C. Holtje, cashier of the Wheeling Bank who is a candidate for re-election as mayor of that town. The candidates for trustees, whose names appear upon the Schwingel ticket are John Meyer, Frank Forke and Julius Meinken. The Progressive ticket headed by Holtje contains the names of Edward F. Moeller, Chas. W. Johnson and Anton Mayer as candidates for trustees.

Three Tickets in Field at Itasca
Itasca has three tickets in the field, but the People's party has the only full list of candidates. G. F. Schroeder is candidate to succeed himself. His team mates are S. G. Schneider, H. H. Geils and E. Rosen. The Independent ticket contains the names of Henry Luehring and Russel E. Paulson as candidates for trustees. J. C. H. Brockmeier is candidate for village president on an independent ticket.

Two Tickets at Addison
The small but growing village of Addison has developed a good sized election contest. Fred E. Krage is candidate for mayor. His associates for village trustees are Fred W. Mueller, G. H. Rittmuller and F. Heinrich. H. C. Strausschild, who has been village clerk a great many years, has resigned and H. J. Henning is the unopposed candidate for the office. Frieda M. Meissler is candidate for village treasurer and Harold Senne as village marshal. This is one of the few villages that elect their treasurer and marshal. The opposition ticket for the village board contains the names of M. W. Eggerding for president; Alfred W. Kause, Herman Haussermann and George Rittmuller as candidates for trustees.

Three Candidates for Mayor at River Grove
River Grove has a three sided mayoralty fight. The candidates are Otto J. Koch, under the title of Citizens ticket; Daniel G. Gillen, Peoples ticket, and William R. Ridge, Home Rule. The latter ticket has a candidate for village trustee in the person of Ed. Stahlberg. Mr. Koch's running mates are Albert C. Dohrmann, Oscar J. Streetz and Ernest W. Anderson. The candidates for trustees with Mr. Gillen are Wm. J. Norton, Bellett Lawson and Carl L. Stark.

Clean Cut Fight at Palatine
The people of Palatine, some of them, are rather disappointed that there is not a greater smudge over the town in that village. Up to the present time, there has been a single rock hurled by either camp, which speaks well for the progress that will be made next year, no matter which side wins. There can be no "sore heads" after the Palatine election. The present mayor, F. F. Daniels has as his running mates the alderman whose terms expire, Henry C. Hitzemann, Charles Schoppe and Chas. Wittenburg, with a new man in the person of Dan Bergman, Sr., candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Wm. S. Dollinger, who heads the People's ticket for mayor. Mr. Dollinger's team mates are Wm. Henning, Harry E. Kuse, Adolph Godknecht for the full term and Franklin J. Oldendorf for the vacancy. Mrs. Grace Greener and Georg Hermann for the library board are unopposed. Palatine will vote on the municipal bond tax.

Two Tickets at Morton Grove
Morton Grove is following the footsteps of neighboring villages and has a first class election contest. George J. Loutsch is candidate for president under the Citizens ticket. His "partners" who are seeking election as trustees are Sidney Deney, Fred L. Husscher, Arthur W. Rugen. The village ticket is headed by Herbert A. Dilg for president of the board; Joseph R. Brooks, Urban Hoffman and Chas. E. Pesheke.

Northbrook Candidates
Two full tickets will appear before the voters of Northbrook next Tuesday. Arthur Therrien, Sr., assistant superintendent of the National Brick Co., is candidate for village president. He served 12 years as village clerk and was president of the village for a period of four years. His running mates are Henry G. Kiest, Conrad Neuman and Emil Mueller for trustees. The opposing ticket is headed by John MacLachlan as president; Rud Lauer, Joseph Kortman and Alfred Kisor.

Opposition in Franklin Park
The retiring members of the village board of Franklin Park has opposition at the municipal election, for next Tuesday. Mayor Siebold is opposed by Wm. McVerney. The retiring trustees are Walter Inda, Edwin Popp and James Neuzil. Their opponents are Paul Plaster, Chas. F. Hart and Alvin Erdman.

Little Opposition at Niles Center
Mayor Brown of Niles Center is unopposed and there is only one opposition to the candidates for trustees on the Citizens ticket. R. H. Huntsman is the independent candidate. The others are Albert Lies, Henry F. Vogt and Peter Conrad.

EGG HUNT BECKONS CHILDREN OF TOWN

The Easter Rabbit has built 288 nests in anticipation for the Veterans of Foreign Wars egg hunt at Arlington Heights Sunday afternoon. That is a lot of nests for one Easter rabbit to build, but members of the V. F. W. post have helped in the task. The eggs, of varied colors, and hues will be found scattered over a several acre tract. No child of 14 years or older will be permitted to enter this field. A special section will be reserved for children below school age. The prize eggs will be so marked and can be exchanged for the value marked thereon with the committee.

This egg hunt is planned to create a lot of pleasure for the boys and girls of Arlington Heights. The hunters will not alone receive for "keeps" every Easter egg they will find, but there will be many prizes. Contestants will enter the hunt for

The joy they find in it." No more than two prizes will be allowed a single person. The contestants will meet at the Herald office at two o'clock. They will be led to the hunting grounds by Officer Skoug. Owners of autos are asked to act as chauffeurs. Each child should have a basket or sack for the eggs they find.

This egg hunt is in reality the postponed dog derby that did not materialize last February on account of lack of snow. The prize money that was contributed by the business men for the derby will be used. Those who offered merchandise will be excused this time, the committee reserving the right to keep such merchandise prizes "on tap" for future community contests. If there are any who desire to help out in the money prizes, for the egg hunt, their money will be gladly accepted and the number of prizes increased to that extent.

The meanest thing in the world is greed.

MAYOR MORS OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS

ALLEGATION:—(a) Built by an outside contractor. A local man didn't have a chance.

(a) While I appreciate that the public is not concerned in what a private individual does (the fact that I am Mayor has no bearing on the situation whatever), the fact remains that I did give two (2) local contractors an opportunity to bid. While one of the local contractors was first granted a minimum of six (6) days only, at the end of which time he was given to understand that unless he was in a position to furnish a bid at that time, the deal would terminate, and it was terminated as no figures were forthcoming; but subsequently, however, a further respite of practically a week was given him in which to re-figure. Net result—no figures. As a matter of fact, the local contractor was given more time than the outside contractor in which to submit figures. Another home contractor was given an opportunity to bid and in order to verify this, I will quote my letter to him and his reply.

Mr. Chas. F. Grandt, mason contractor, Arlington Heights, March 29, 1927.

As you are doubtless aware, there seems to be great interest manifested in the fact that an outside contractor built my new home and according to Dame Rumor a local man did not have an opportunity to bid on the work. This statement you know is absolutely incorrect.

"While I appreciate that the general public is not concerned with what a private individual does (the fact that I am Mayor has absolutely nothing to do with my own private and personal rights), it is my intention, however, to give the public the facts in this instance.

"You will recall that on a certain Tuesday night I called at your residence and presented a plan for my new home and told you that inasmuch as my house was to be built of brick I naturally preferred a mason contractor to be a general contractor; that I intended to also call on another local mason contractor to give him an opportunity to bid. I furthermore stated that there were two contractors, with whom I had business dealings in Chicago, whom I stated I would also give an opportunity to make a bid, the representative of one of which had given me his insurance business for several years. I told you that my house was sold on a cash basis subject to vacation of the premises at the earliest possible date, which necessarily meant that service and price would be large factors in the contract. I told you I would only make a general contract as I would not have the time to consult plumbers, electricians and other branches of the building line.

"You very frankly told me that while you would have been glad to have given me a bid you were tied up with so much work that it would be simply impossible, and fully appreciated the conditions confronting me.

"Will you not please advise me by return mail if the statements made above are or are not correct? Respectfully,"

"Mr. P. J. Mors, March 31, 1927

Dear Sir: I received your letter of March 29th, and I wish to say that the statements made therein are absolutely true. You gave me a fair opportunity to bid on your home, but I simply had too much to do and knowing the conditions under which your home was sold, I wasn't going to waste your time so I told you frankly I couldn't give you a bid. I might add at this time that I, for one, certainly appreciate the hard work you and the other members on the Village Board have done toward improving our Village, as it has meant a great amount of work for the Building Line in all its branches, and every one engaged in that work ought to appreciate it.

Your truly,"

As a matter of information will state that of the outside contractors, the one who submitted the lowest bid and secured my contract was the man whose insurance business I have been handling for several years.

While I appreciate, as stated above, that you are not concerned in my private affairs I did want to correct the false statements which have been made in this regard. Furthermore, I want to take this opportunity—and I am addressing my remarks only to those who are trying to capitalize upon anything they can lay their hands on in an effort to defeat me—of stating that I would not surrender my personal rights and privileges, sacrifice my own self respect for any political office regardless of its nature.

Aside from the increased population, increased property values, increase in business in general, who has profited most by the present Administration?

(Ans.) The building industry in all its branches, and yet some of them with more than they can handle will question my right to exercise my personal prerogative the same as any other private citizen because I am Mayor.

I am glad to say, however, that this is not the attitude of all our men in the building line and it certainly has been a great pleasure to me to have them tell me so as they have appreciated my honesty and energetic work on the Village Board.

"This is the most unkindliest cut of all" (let tu, Brut?)"

I have lived in Arlington Heights nearly all my life and I never thought I would see the day when anyone in Arlington Heights would ever dare to circulate such infamous reports, that I was dishonest and crooked. It has been rumored that my new home was built on money secured by crookedness at the expense of the public.

Doesn't it seem strange that a man who sold his home for cash built some twenty (20) years ago, who has sold his equity in another piece of property purchased some three years ago, coupled with the fact that he has been continuously holding responsible positions at a fair salary, should not have a nucleus with which to build a new home? Am I the only man who has built a new home in recent years? Others can build homes by the dozen and nothing said, but because I built a new home, I am charged with being a "Crook." Now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I am going to make a personal appeal, not for your support at the polls—but I am going to appeal to your sense of honor, to your sense of true American citizenship, to your sense of justice, to your faith in the Golden Rule "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you" and ask that you give me any information as to the party or parties who have possibly come to you and made the statement that my home was built as a result of graft, dishonesty or crookedness. Thus far I have learned that this was being done by someone, although I have not as yet been able to ascertain who is responsible.

Apologizing for this lengthy statement and assuring you that your confidence has never been misplaced, I remain

Respectfully yours,

P. J. MORS.

SPRUCE UP

Which street in town presents the best appearance to the stranger? Which lawns show the most diligent work upon the part of its owners? Does the man with the modest home take as much interest in its appearance as the man who has a modern $15,000 to $20,000 abode? Can the beauties of nature be found in some small yard without a pretentious residence for a background? These things will be decided in the clean-up campaign. Read news columns for the particulars.

LIONS HOST TO ATHLETES AT BANQUET

The local Lions' Club staged one of their most brilliant meetings at their dinner in the basement of the Presbyterian church last Tuesday evening when they combined "Ladies Night" with a reception to the high school letter men. Some twenty-five members of the club, with their wives, were present, and in addition had as their guests, three members of the local high school board of education and Coach Ralph Cressy and seventeen football and basketball players who had earned their letters the past season. The special guests of honor and principal speaker of the evening was Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, Director of Athletics of Northwestern University.

The meeting opened with the usual Lions' songs followed by the high school "Loyalty" song. Lion Billman presided as Toastmaster and started things off with some suggestions of what athletics means to boys and what it does for those who engage in organized games. Lion Billman introduced Prin. V. I. Brown who insisted that he was not on the program, but took advantage of the opportunity to thank the club on behalf of the high school and the teams. The Toastmaster then called upon Herbert Hartman, Captain of the football team, to respond to the toast "Fumbles and Kicks." Capt. Hartman explained that he had not been advised of his subject so he would fumble for words and kick at the title. He commented briefly upon the standards and ideals which the local team had always tried to maintain and thanked the Lions' Club for their interest in the team. The Toastmaster left "Butch" Jahrling gasping for breath when he introduced him as a player having at least one goal that he never missed—but it wasn't a basketball goal. "Butch" recovered sufficiently to explain that the boys had tried to find some means of expressing their appreciation of the club's recognition of their efforts and that in the absence of any better method some of the boys in the Manual Training shop and conceived the idea of making and presenting to the President a walnut gavel with which to control the club. He suggested that if it took a more substantial wooden instrument to do the job, that they might be able to make that also. President Behrens responded thanking Capt. Jahrling for the gavel.

Coach Cressy responded to the Toastmasters topic of "Between Halves" by stating that the heart to heart talk of a coach and his players between halves of a game are not to be shared with the public. Mr. Cressy spoke at some length on the trails and enjoyments of coaching and the values to be derived by the players from their participation in the various sports.

The Toastmaster expressed his keen enjoyment in welcoming a man from his own Alma Mater and his shade of disappointment in realizing later that "Tug" Wilson was "another man from the University of Illinois." "Tug" soon convinced his hearers that while he had not forgotten his first love, he was a present very much a Northwestern man and deeply in love with his school and his work. He outlined carefully the plans and activities of the Athletic department of Northwestern University, showing that the immense sums of money being collected and expended by Athletic departments in large universities were used to make possible a physical training program which reaches all students, both men and women. He paid tribute to men such as Alonzo Starg, Fielding H. Yost, and the late Walter Kamp, whose lives are given to the uplifting and maintaining of the highest standards of sportsmanship. "Fair play" is so common an expression as to create little interest but "fair politics" and "fair business" might almost cause a smile. The playing field is the one place where every one stands on an equal footing. There are no favorites and no advantages. You observe the code or you pay the penalties and each penalty puts you a bit farther from your goal. Mr. Wilson recommended to the boys the Lions' code of ethics as printed on the back of their song books, and to the Lions' Club the boy's standards of hard hitting, clean play and giving their best all the time. His delightful stories of incidents on the track and the gridiron proved that ath-

The Honeymoon Home

The HERALD has arranged through the Charles P. Gray Company, subdividers of Arlington Addition, and Geo. L. Parker & Son, contractors, to put on exhibition a modern Honeymoon Home at Arlington Heights.

The HERALD is going to make the down payment to the owner of the Honeymoon Home. All that is necessary for a chance on the home is for any person to register his or her name at the subdivision office in Arlington addition.

By Clyde C. Young

Home ownership is building the foundation of wealth. Almost any man who has established independence in a financial way owns his own home. A home owner's credit is always the best in his neighborhood, all of which proves that home ownership is the first step to independence in wealth. Almost anyone will agree with me that the young people of the country should lay the foundation of their future by beginning to own a home or a home site. The problem is not so hard as most people think. Either you are paying rent, you are simply buying property for the landlord. One of your obligations to your family is to provide them with a home.

In analyzing values in Arlington Heights residential districts, consider first that there is only so much land and that there will never be any more.

The first thing to consider is that you should not over-rely on yourself by obligating yourself for more than you can afford to pay. The person who obligates himself to make payments on his home, will naturally take more interest in his home. This will be an advantage because his home will be taken care of. You spend many idle hours at your home, which could be used to good advantage in keeping the building up, which will naturally add to your value.

One should be careful not to contract for large payments. Any reliable architect or realtor can give reliable advice along these lines.

Property always increases in value. A careful check up of the territory within the corporate limits of Arlington Heights reveals much food for serious thought along this line. A number of districts which a few years ago were but sparsely settled are now practically solidly built up. This development has every significance in the matter of investment. The most illuminating result of these developments is the increased demand and constant increase in values of property; also the increased number of residents has increased business.

In looking over many of the residential localities the most remarkable thing is the great amount of building that has been done by owners of both homes and business property.

It is not without its humor. It was a delightful and inspiring address which he fittingly closed with the athletic prayer.

Dear Lord, in the battle that goes on through life,

I ask but a field that is fair, A chance that is equal with all in the strife,

A courage to strive and to dare; And if I should win, let it be by the code

With my faith and my honor held high;

And if I should lose, let me stand by the road,

And cheer as the winners go by.

And Lord, may my shouts be ungrudging and clear,

A tribute that comes from the heart,

And let me not cherish a snarl or a sneer

Or play any sniveling part;

Let me say, "There they ride, on whom are laurels bestowed

Since they played the game better than I."

Let me stand with a smile by the side of the road

And cheer as the winners go by.

So grant me to conquer, if conquer I can,

By proving my worth in the fray

But teach me to lose like a regular man,

And not like a craven, I pray;

Let me take off my hat to the warriors who stand

To victory splendid and high, Yea, teach me to stand by the side of the road,

And cheer as the winners go by.

Miss Adeline Muller

Married in Quiet

Home Ceremony

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Muller on Fremont Street, Arlington Heights, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Adeline their eldest daughter became the bride of Mr. William Erb, of

Las Vegas, New Mexico. The bride was attired in a simple taffeta dress. She was attended by her sister, Miss Wilhelmina. Geo. L. Porter, Jr., was groomsmen. The only guests present were the immediate relatives of the bride's family. Rev. Kossack, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated. While friends of the bride were aware of the coming nuptials few knew that they were to occur so soon. Mr. Erb, who is employed in the government postoffice at Las Vegas, was able to make an unexpected trip north, which precipitated the wedding plans. The bride and groom are visiting relatives of

Mr. Erb in Ohio and Pennsylvania. They will leave next week for their home in Las Vegas. They are looking forward to the near future when they will be able to return to some northern state. Neither have relatives in New Mexico and while that state was the scene of their courtship, the north among relatives and friends is more attractive to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Erb have the best wishes of friends of Arlington Heights and vicinity. The bride has lived here all of her life. The groom is also a "northerner" and has only spent a few years in the southern state.

Good Soloists For

Easter Cantata

The soloists for the cantata to be given by the combined choirs of the Methodist churches of Palatine and Arlington Heights have been announced as follows:

Hugh Aspinwall of Palatine, tenor; Marvin Greener of Palatine, bass; Miss Porter and Mrs. Godknecht of Palatine, sopranos; Mrs. Stewart Allen of Arlington Heights, soprano; Annabel Cordula of Arlington Heights, alto; Frank McBride and Sidney Allen of Arlington Heights, baritone, and tenor, respectively.

The cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," recalls simply and reverently the scenes which marked the last few days of the Savior's life on earth, and some of the reflections suggested thereby.

The singing portrays the supper of the Passover at which Jesus washes his disciples' feet and gives to his friends the new commandment of love for one another as the sign of true discipleship. From this scene passes to the garden of Gethsemane the sudden appearance of the hostile crowd, Jesus forsaken by his disciples. His utter loneliness among ruthless foes, the tumult before Pilate in the judgment hall, the passage of the cross, and the tragedy and triumph of Calvary.

The cantata will be sung three times. On Friday evening, April 15, it will be given in the M. E. church at Palatine; on Sunday evening, April 17, it will be sung in the M. E. church at Arlington Heights, and on Wednesday evening, April 20, it will be sung in the Methodist church at Antioch.

Children Heart Tag Day Is Saturday

A representative of the Volunteers of America, General and Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth National presidents, has been given permission to hold a "children heart tag day" in Arlington Heights on Saturday, as has been done in Geneva, West Chicago, Wheaton etc.

Mrs. Booth and her co-workers are known in every prison in the country and there has been organized in all large cities, during the past thirty years by the Volunteers of America, one or more homes for children, day nurseries, boys clubs, homes for aged, missions, hope halls farm camps.

Regimental officers of the organization help destitute families of prisoners anywhere in the state. The affair in Arlington Heights will have the following well known patrons and patronesses.

Rev. J. H. Ellerbrake, Mrs. S. E. Pate, Rev. H. S. Kossack, Mrs. John Best, Rev. Fr. Peter Gall. Headquarters will be at the Grade school building with Miss Fern Lorenzen in charge of finances and young peoples work.

Local merchants have signified their willingness to cooperate and have offered the following prizes and movie passes as incentives for youthful workers, for this is to be a children's drive to help children and bring comfort to little ones in this state less fortunate than themselves.

Those who secure the largest amounts will receive for the first prize a "string of Delta Pearls," given by "Peter and Gorschuch" second, "In a door 'ball," given by "Reese Hardware" Third, Roller skates, given by friend, fourth box candy, given by "Arlington Sweet Shop". Those who do not win prizes but who secure at least $3.00 for their tags will receive a pass to the Arlington theatre.

The committee sponsoring the affair holds that every one will feel that whatever he gives will prove a blessing to the little ones in care of the organization. Wear a "heart" on your coat on Saturday and help toward laying the basis of better citizenship.

Woman's Club

Hears Talk On Changing World

At a recent meeting of the Arlington Heights Women's club, Mrs. M. H. Lieber of Winnetka gave her lecture on, "Our Responsibility in a Changing World."

Mrs. Lieber divided her subject into five different headings and told of changes that she had noted over a period of years and of the new responsibility these changes bring to the newly franchised voter.

She spoke first on home life. Her early remembrance were of the old fashioned spinning wheel, dash churn, cistern pump and lamp chimneys. The coming of electricity, automobiles and movies had made a great change in home life with added responsibilities that the home had not seemed to assume.

The second point of Mrs. Lieber's address was the changes in Industrial life. Where forty years ago or less nearly all of the garments that women wear were made in the home, today thousands of girls and women leave their homes every morning to go into factories and plants to make these garments. Because of this change there are added responsibilities.

The third change that was noted was a political change. While our parents paid little attention to politics, today nearly all franchises such as water, gas, light, telephone, good roads, etc. have become not only a part of home life, but of political life. Mrs. Lieber urged the members of the club not to be indifferent to this new responsibility, but to study these changes and become intelligent users of the ballot.

The fourth and fifth points were Education and Religion. The changes that are taking place in these phases of life today. Our schools are beginning to realize that our boys and girls must be fitted for their places in life and to be trained to meet the responsibilities of the coming years. That the big problem of our schools today is to teach the children of the world how to live together. That no matter what church, creed or religion, the training must be toward understanding each other. If these fundamental principles are taught today as they should be the right kind of a future is assured.

GUY SAMPSON, Local Editor and Agent

The guessing contest conducted by one of our popular merchants ended Saturday and the prize went to Mrs. J. H. Valentine whose guess was 1224 while the exact number of pineapple slices in the cans in the window was 1214. Our local editor was next closest guessing 1225. The guesses varied from a few hundred up to several thousand. Most of the visitors to this store registered a guess.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Franzen entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Saturday evening. About forty friends attended the party.

Mrs. Louise Bodenburger Suter entertained the Circle des Amies club at her Palatine home Tuesday. A chicken dinner was one of the features of the party. As Mr. Suter is in the poultry and egg business the club members had a chance to partake of some of the famous chicken meat raised on this popular chicken farm. Next Tuesday the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. J. Potter Marquette at Norwood Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Obed Garrett, who conduct a dry cleaning establishment in Chicago drove out to Bensenville Sunday to visit Mrs. Garrett's brother Edwin Sprandel and family. Mr. Garrett advised his brother-in-law that his business had grown to the extent that he had just purchased a new Pontiac truck for use in his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barthemy entertained their friends at their home Saturday evening. A good time was reported by those who attended.

Mrs. Wm. Rands entertained the Neighborhood Club Tuesday afternoon. The out of town guests were Miss Audrie Knowles of Milwaukee who is spending her spring vacation from high school at her brother, Leslie Knowles' home.

The R. J. Bauersheim contractor Co. have just unloaded their big well drilling machine at Bensenville and moved it to the Mohawk Golf Course just north of town where they will do some work for Frank Smead the proprietor of the grounds. Work at the golf course is progressing nicely and we hope soon to give our readers a complete write up on the play ground located so close to our citizens that every one interested in this outdoor sport should investigate the advantages of having this beautifully located golf ground so close that it is no effort at all to step over and play a round after the close of their day's work.

D. C. Craig, the jolly contractor, who two years ago laid our sanitary sewer system, and is now engaged in laying the storm sewer stopped the local editor a few days ago and gave us his opinion of the future of our fast growing village. He complimented the village board and the voters of Bensenville for the progress that has been made here and said he enjoyed watching so beautiful a village as ours being improved as it is. We advised him that the Register at his home every week would keep him posted on our advancements and he at once ordered the paper sent to his home so that he could keep in touch with this fast growing town in which he had personally supervised so much of the improvements.

Mrs. Addie Harvey of Detroit, Mich., visited at the Chas. Shoop home Sunday. She made the trip from Detroit to Chicago on the bus line and stated that she enjoyed every minute of the nine hour trip between the two cities. Monday she attended the funeral of Ill. Div. brakeman Howard Wardlow whose mother is a very dear friend of Mrs. Harvey.

Easter plants of every description, cut flowers always on hand. W. F. Duntemann, Bensenville.

Friends of the family of W. W. Standard will be glad to know that the children are on the road to recovery after the two younger ones had taken the anti-toxin for scarlet fever, the little mother had her hands full, so Mrs. J. D. Lookabaugh of Chicago (mother of J. J. Lookabaugh) offered her help as a nurse and friend of the family.

Mrs. J. D. Lookabaugh is a nurse that is widely known on the north side of Chicago for efficiency among the doctors and noted families.

Oscar Franzen has just obtained the contract for plumbing, heating and electrical work in a new English Colonial bungalow which is being built at Itasca by the B. B. Clover real estate firm.

The C. M. & St. P. Woman's club cleared $22.00 on their bake sale Saturday. Every thing that was brought to the sale was disposed of early in the afternoon.

The Bensenville Hardware company's employees have just finished installing an X-Ray machine in the office of our local dentist. The machine consumes 4000 watts. It is a wonderful machine and will no doubt be a great help to the Doctor in his fast growing business.

Our baker F. Loesch, and family spent Sunday in Chicago, having gone there early in the day to attend a confirmation service as a nephew of theirs was one of the class.

Mrs. Barney Doherty is still visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. Wm. Grobe on Center street. Mrs. F. H. Burnath has been summoned to the home of her parents at Michigan City, Ind., on account of the serious illness of her father.

Dr. James has just had installed in his office a new Fischer combination Diathermy, Violet Ray, Compressed Air and Vibrator cabinet. Attachments for the treatments of all diseases accompany the machine.

Mr. Shaw's mother, Mrs. Cooper who was reported suffering from an attack of rheumatism is much improved.

Little Eugene Wagner had a narrow escape recently when larger boys playfully threw a long pointed stick which hit the little fellow in the cheek lacerating it badly. He was hurried to the doctor who dressed the wound. Just another case of children being too careless. They do things without stopping to think how many accidents could be avoided if they would only take the time to consider what might happen, or how they would feel if a thoughtless carless act on their part should cause a playmate to lose an eye or perhaps be otherwise crippled for life. Call it Safety First, Accident Prevention or just plain being careful, but we still believe that we should at every opportunity try to bring to the attention of both old and young the importance of cultivating habits that will prevent accidents.

House Bill Offers Relief for "Poor" School Districts

The introduction in the legislature of House Bill No. 305 by Mr. Waller, a representative from the 44th district, has raised some interesting questions. House Bill 305 provides for an appropriation of $10,000,000 a year to the state distributive school fund instead of the $8,000,000 that has been appropriated for several years past.

To the question of what part of the total cost of the public schools should be borne by the State and what part by the local school districts, the proponents of the bill answer that the state should pay at least 25 per cent of the cost, that the present appropriation is less than 7 per cent of the cost, and that even if the appropriation is made $10,000,000 it will still be only a little over 8 per cent of the cost.

To those who question the purpose of the state school fund, the answer is that a large state fund is necessary in order to prevent the most glaring inequalities in taxation for property owners and educational opportunities for children. There are nearly 12,000 separate school districts in Illinois, each with its own taxing power, and each raising nearly all its school funds by a tax on the property within its own boundaries. But there are wide inequalities in the distribution of children and assessable wealth among these districts. It is not difficult to find districts with 100 times as much assessable property per child as is found in certain other districts. This is the same as saying that some districts are 100 times as able to educate their children as are certain other districts. The results on the taxpayers are that some of them in districts with much wealth and few children have a light school tax of $1.00 or less on the $100 of assessed valuation, while others in poor, crowded districts pay as much as $8.00 on the $100. The results for the children are that some of them have excellent schools in good buildings with first-class equipment, long terms and highly-trained and efficient teachers, while those in the poorer districts have less efficient schools in poor buildings with insufficient equipment, short terms, and cheap, untrained teachers.

Since these wide inequalities are not in accord with the impartial treatment Illinois should give its children, House Bill 305 has been introduced to provide that a little larger part of school revenues be raised by state-wide taxation of some sort, and then be distributed where the children are to be educated.

MORE FARMERS FLIM FLAMMED BY MILK PLAN

Fifteen farmers of South Barrington, Schaumburg and Hanover townships, who have been paying out hundreds of dollars through the operation of a Chicago Milk man who purchased their milk over a term of several months. Suits were started this week before Judge Byrd by Attorney Henry Nickols representing the farmers.

Constable Einek served the papers and also warrants charging a woman with issuing checks without funds. The defendants are Joseph Freck, Sr., Joseph Freck, Jr., and Mrs. Freck, Jr. It is a long story.

It is the same old story of a lot of milk producers selling their products through independent channels without the advice and help of a milk association. They have apparently been "flim flammed" by the Frecks through promises and plausible stories. The milk was gathered by truck by Freck Jr. When he failed to pay for milk, his wife, came out to the farmers and promised them their money if they would continue to ship, saying that she was now manager. Then came the checks that were not honored at the bank. Still later Mr. Freck, Sr., came to the farmers and guaranteed the money, saying that neither his son or his wife were capable of handling the business. Suits have been filed and a warrant taken out against Mrs. Freck.

The farmers who have lost their milk money through the operation of the Frecks are Arthur H. Bartels, Louis Thies, Herman Deackman, Carl Flentje, Chas. Loomis, Orlan Loomis, Sam Blank, Wm. Mentge, Aug. Greve, E. H. Munk, Henry Lawrence, Fred Arens, Wm. Heine, Harold Helfer, F. C. Hecht, John Garbrecht.

New Ordinance Provides Pavement Bensenville Village

An ordinance was presented to the village board of trustees of the Village of Bensenville April 7, calling for a pavement improvement, the cost totalling $421,521.28. This ordinance was ordered published in full in the DuPage County Register and it appears in this issue. This improvement will place that village in the "city" class and will raise the property values throughout the village.

At the regular meeting of the village board Thursday evening it was voted to improve the street lighting on York, Green and other business streets in Bensenville by putting in 200 Watt lamps where we now have only 60 watt lights. This will surely make a bright spot in DuPage county that all will be pleased to visit and perhaps later locate here permanently.

P. T. A. Elect Officers; Program Much Enjoyed

The musical program given by the P. T. A. Thursday April 14 was a most enjoyable affair and those who did not attend surely missed something grand. Every number was loudly applauded and those who took part had to return to the piano or stage several times before they were allowed to rest. Beside the three piece Kolza orchestra and singing by the girls glee club with Miss Selma Fisher at the piano, several other students of both the high school and the grades played selections on the piano. Each one proved to those who listened that Bensenville and community is just brim full of excellent musical talent. The song which was acted out and sang by Buddie Barthelmy and Clara Vogli was certainly a scream. Both children who are about 8 years old were dressed as grown people from head to foot, Buddie even wearing a cady on his head and a mustache on his lip. Mrs. Lindquist played the accompaniment for the youngsters and as the crowd clapped their hands for an encore Master Buddie and Miss Clara returned to the stage and made a real nifty bow and scampered off stage.

The Bensenville P. T. A. held their annual election of officers April 7, as follows: president, Rev. Rander; vice president, Mrs. Capoot; secretary, Miss Combs; treasurer, Wm. Ernsting. The treasurer's report showed a good balance on the right side of the ledger. There was one addition to the membership at this meeting. The parents attendance by grades was fifth grade, 5, 2nd 8, 3rd 8, 4th 7, 5th 2, 6th 9 and the 7th 8. The fifth grade having the most parents present at the meeting receives the beautiful picture for their room this month and as they have had the picture the most times this year they will be entitled to keep it permanently. All who are interested in our public school should take an active interest in the next meeting which will be held in the spacious new high school building and will be the opportunity for every one in the community high school district to visit and look over the new building. Plenty of room for all as the seating capacity of the auditorium is about 1000. Watch the Register for the date of the next meeting.

F. N. Peck Disposes Of Bank Holdings

Business and land developments, involving in growth much subdividing and building operations, to be continued this summer in northern DuPage county, as suburban Chicago, are accompanied by several bank and financial changes projected as well effected. Mr. F. N. Peck, who has been a forceful factor in this section's developments the last few years has, as long contemplated, finally disposed of practically all his holdings in DuPage county.

Mr. Chas. H. Canode, yielding to the demands of his publishing and printing business in Chicago, and the Polaris Electric Refrigerator Company's factories in Indiana, has been succeeded in the presidency of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank, at Roselle, by Mr. C. M. Bentley, who for a time has been an efficient vice president of that bank. Mr. Bentley is the owner of the Roselle Motor Sales and Ford Agency, and an alert young, and successful business man, personally very popular in a wide territory. Other substantial and selected local interests have become identified with the bank.

Mr. Wm. F. Kramer, succeeding Mr. Peck, becomes vice president of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank at Roselle, which is a distinctly a modern and suburban bank. He is secretary-treasurer of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and Drop Forgers, a powerful organization in the United States and Canada in numbers and wealth. This organization is in close association with personal and financial officialdom in most of the great national federations. In the last few years, through their able leaders, many of these organizations possessing large means, have become identified with banking, and their investments habits, with constantly increasing incomes which must be invested, mean much to favored communities.

The Cloverdale State Bank, at Cloverdale between Roselle and Wheaton on the Illinois Central Railroad, which aims at community development and progress, and which, already handsomely housed, has been modestly making its way steadily, for some time, will also now have the same officers. Mr. Bentley as President and Mr. Kramer as vice president. Leland J. Droese, a resident of Roselle is now cashier of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank. Miss Ruth Hill, manager of the adjoining village of Bloomingdale, is assistant cashier. Mr. Peck has always been interested in business and progress, even while located here for a number of years past, investing in DuPage county in a then dormant community. By fall he expects to give close attention to a Finance Corporation which, in connection with strong banks, already established there, will deal in realty and financial assets in Florida. He will continue in connection with long active corporate organizations, to spend a part of the year in the Northwest, where he has been identified with banking, land and range cattle during the last 29 years.

Mr. Peck's investing in this locality a few years ago was coincident with his new suburban life. He was one of the founders and the first Treasurer of Minnehaha Country Club, and that $2,000,000 building and grounds completion has been potent in stimulating the otherwise inevitable great increase in land values which has come, and in distributing several hundreds of thousands of dollars among the farmers and local residents who have been gainfully employed. That this section has now a tremendous prospective increase in Chicago suburban values is proved by the fact that DuPage county, so many years dormant, but always possessing true scenic land values, so very close to Chicago, has doubled in population in two years.

Northern DuPage Masonic Lodge Entertains Many

Saturday evening, April 9th, was set aside as Men's night, and Northern DuPage Lodge was host to about seventy-five men of the community. The evening was devoted to entertainment and a buffet lunch.

The entertainment committee, Thomas Pierce, Claude Peterson and Henry Pohlman arranged a very interesting program. After a short address by the Master, Wm. Roloff, the festivities began, consisting of community singing, vaudville, and two very interesting boxing bouts, one of which was staged by two members of the lodge. The only casualty during the bouts was in the second tilt, when the referee attempted to stop a well aimed blow with his jaw. After the entertainment the Junior Warden, F. W. Kobusch and his corps of assistants served a delicious lunch.

Every one went away satisfied, and all voiced a hope that Northern DuPage Lodge would soon stage another Men's night.

Northern DuPage Lodge meets every Friday night in their hall in Bloomingdale, and all Master Masons are cordially invited to visit.

Let's Be Decent

An Editorial
This editorial written for Palatine, applies equally as well to other municipalities.

In many respects the present political campaign is a record breaker in Palatine history. There has been no open and very little under cover mud slinging. We hope that there will be none in the closing days of the campaign.

In contrast to the big hard fought elections of other years the 1927 campaign will go down in history in a class by itself.

In former years the mud and recriminations have flown back and forth for weeks. So far this year there has been none.

This is a good omen. It is a good thing for Palatine.

It will be easier to mend the sores of the campaign after election if the muck is left out.

It will be easier for the candidates to meet each other the morning after election with a cheery Hello Frank, Bill, Harry, Charley, etc., if raw sores are not caused by unnecessary vituperation.

The present peaceful campaign is a tribute to the candidates and the campaign managers of both tickets. We know that there are radicals in both camps, that these radicals have been put in the background is a tribute to the wholesome good sense of the men who are handling the campaigns.

It is the sign of the dawn of a new era of better understanding and better fellowship in Palatine. And the candidates on both tickets are estimable and respected men.

The present board are running on their record, on what they have done for Palatine. Their opponents are running because they seek the offices and think a change is desirable.

The people of Palatine are to be the jury. Let's let their decision be final and all be good sports and abide by the results.

We are all headed the same way, for the same ideals, a better Palatine in which to live.

The campaign is nearing a close. Lets keep up the good work, keep our shirts on, keep out the mud and be decent.

Its better for us all and for Palatine.

Betty Barclay's Weekly Recipe Pie? Of course you must have pie, particularly in cold weather when one does not mind standing before a stove or range. But vary your pies a bit. Do not be content with serving the same kind over and over again—for variety is just as much the spice of cooking as it is of life, you know. Here is one that fits into the month of March like the proverbial March hare:

Chiffon Pie
½ cup flour; ½ teaspoon salt; 1¼ cup cold water; 3 eggs; 1¼ cups sugar; juice of 1 lemon; juice and grated rind of 1 orange.

Mix sugar, flour and salt; add boiling water, stirring constantly. Cook 15 minutes. Add well-beaten egg yolks, rind and juice of fruit and cook until thick. Cool. Make meringue of their whites of the eggs, ½ cup powdered sugar and 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Whip one-fourth of meringue into custard mixture and turn into baked pie shell. Cover with remaining meringue and brown in moderate oven.

What His Co-Workers
Think of Danielson

It isn't always that a man's fellow officials and co-workers are with him when he runs for office. That may be Danielson has a well known fact. Without co-operation Palatine could never have made the great progress that it has in four years time. And now as Mayor Danielson's second term draws to a close and he faces a fight for re-election Tuesday, the Palatine official family has rallied to their president's support, in a striking testimonial which is a tribute to his leadership.

April 11, 1927.
Mr. Frank F. Danielson, Palatine, Illinois.
Dear Mr. Danielson,

Having worked with you as fellow officials for a period of your administration, and therefore knowing most intimately the quality of your service, we wish to express this our appreciation, and you have our permission to publish this for the people of Palatine, if you so desire.

1. When you came in four years ago, we had everything that we shouldn't have, bad feeling, bitter enemies, lack of progress, no streets, no sewers and no general inclination to change the situation. You lacked a majority, but your proposition because they were so fair and impartial and sensible, obtained our unanimous support, and for the same reason, everyone of your very numerous projects, some running in items of a few hundred dollars, some in items of almost two hundred thousand dollars, and all totalling over a million and a quarter of dollars, have met with our hearty approval. That alone is a marvelous record and it is evidence of what we think of your ideas.

2. Ideas and proposition sometimes may be the best, but to get them over, requires something else. In the case of any small village, which can pay no city manager salary, and cannot get experts to stay steadily on the job, a chief item of importance is that someone give daily and hourly attention to details of improvements as they are being built. While we have always had the supervision of our engineers, we feel that your personal attention to the many and varied details of our improvements has been of untold value to Palatine. The fact that you are here at home, in Palatine, during the day when the actual work is being done, and that you have given unstintingly of your time in the supervision of our improvements, is a fact which we feel the people of Palatine cannot overlook. We have "grown up" here in Palatine. We are out of the Country Town days of the past, and the business of running the affairs of Palatine, is today the greatest business in Palatine. You are here in town. You have been everlastingly on the job, as all of us who have worked with you can testify, and we personally feel that no matter how willing or how competent a man be, he can not possibly give to Palatine, the service which you have given, when business interests force his absence from Palatine during the day, when the actual work of development is being done, the work which requires close supervision and the everlasting attention, which you have given it for four busy and productive years.

3. We are proud of Palatine, and so is practically every resident here. We have all been working along together, and we have gone a long way under your presidency. If you had failed or couldn't get things done, or if you couldn't get along with your board, it might be that a new leader would be advisable, who could perhaps do the things which ought to be done, and which you couldn't do or get done.

But in this election, none of these reasons exist. If we conceded every ability to your opponent, if he had the trained experience in village affairs, which four years of actual daily work on our job has given you, if he would give up his outside job and spend every day in Palatine on or near our job, if he could have the ability to get along and to carry with him a unanimous board and a satisfied people, even then, the best we could hope, would be that he would serve us as well as we know you have done and will do.

Sincerely yours,
Henry C. Hitzmann,
Charles Schoppe,
Chas. Wittenburg,
William H. Zoellick,
Fred W. Hunnerberg,
Trustees.

T. C. Hart, Village Clerk.

RIVER GROVE

George Essen was found dead, Sunday morning laying alongside of the C. M. St. P. tracks, by conductor Bassant who notified the police. From all indications Essen was struck by a train and died before help could reach him.

"Cupid and Calliope" will be staged at St. Cyprian's hall Friday April 29, by the "Sorosis" club of Chicago. Those who have seen the "Sorosis" members before say that their talent in putting "Cupid and Calliope" over is admirable. At present, most of St. Cyprian's dramatic club are busy on the play to be staged soon at the Grace Evangelical church.

Don't forget that the date of the village election is April 19. Polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 4 p. m. Three tickets are in the field. The Home Rule, Citizens and People's. Most of those running have served on the board before. W. Ridge and Ed. Stalberg on the Home Rule ticket offer some interesting planks for the voter to consider well before going to the polls.

Walter DeCoste is in a serious condition after undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Heaton has been taken to the hospital following an attack of pneumonia.

Belmont Heights was voted into Chicago April 5 and now propagandists are busy in River Grove urging annexation. We hope the people realize what this means. Vote for your own independence and Home Rule.

Elmwood Park has ordered all poles on Grand ave., removed and placed in their proper place in the alleys. If Elmwood Park, why not River Grove. The board of trustees has voted 300 new lights for Elmwood. As we've left in the dark. Home Rule will do the trick.

Recently we had the opportunity of touring the north western suburbs enroute to Crystal Lake and we could not help but admire the way the progressive little towns skirting the highways kept abreast with the changes that time brings. Their efficient methods bespeak a government of wide awake men.

While in Glen View we examined the new police car which has recently been purchased by the board there. To say it was a wonderful car would only describe its appearance. Fully equipped, it is one of the towns biggest assets and Glen View is only 1000 population. We could not help but stare in amazement at the wonderful school that Carpentersville has erected. Fully as large as many in Chicago and this is another town of 1000 population. Mt. Prospect is soon to have a $25,000 school also. When told that the population of Algonquin was only 350 we were almost speechless. 40 ft. pavements and 4 times as many business houses as River Grove. Franklin Park with its 40 ft. pavements, who could help but admire them. If River Grove with its 3100 population hopes to compete with its smaller sisters she must see that the men who seek office are thoroughly efficient and capable with no interest in view save serving the people. The citizens of River Grove in voting the Home Rule ticket will make no mistake and have no after regrets.

Grace Evangelical Church
April 15 Good Friday morning services at 10:30 a. m. at the village hall. The theme of service, "The Death and Burial of Jesus." April 17, Easter Sunday morning service S. S. at 9:30 a. m. Work has at last been begun on the paving of Rose street. The alleys are also being cleaned up.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson have started housekeeping in Mrs. Gliddens second flat.

The vacant space west of the bank has been cleaned up and now presents a very neat appearance. Let the good work go on until Franklin avenue becomes a beauty spot instead of an eye sore.

Business is getting better for the bus lines in Franklin Park. We noticed a few days ago there were so many busses in River Grove they had to get tangled up and a tow truck had to separate them. It may be alright to have a lot of busses but see that you stay either behind or in front because just as sure as you are serving the public you are going to be censured for all the things you do that doesn't look safe.

Wm. Koenig was reelected township school trustee last Saturday. The election was held at Schiller Park and over 200 votes were cast.

The Franklin Park public school election was held Saturday evening Mr. H. G. Taylor, was reelected president, Mrs. Frank Case and A. E. Wasson trustees were reelected for a term of three years.

F. L. H. LUEDERS, Editor

For the past three or four days everybody seems to feel as though they want to call on Mr. and Mrs. William Horstman to extend congratulations and also all the other good wishes that go with such an event as has taken place in the Horstman home. During the past week they have suddenly become the proud parents of a charming and bouncing boy, one with a generous amount of smiles and dandy big eyes. All feel confident that this little lad will bring much happiness and companionship to them.

The advice in regard to keeping dogs on the owner's premises has apparently been observed. Now we had better add another domestic pet. You may not love your pet chicken or rooster as much as you love your faithful dog, but nevertheless, your neighbor loves them less when they begin to roam and get busy scratching. So please keep them in your own back yard. For some time Mr. Hedke of Main street has not been in real good health. At present he is able to be up and around, but is still very weak. May the arrival of warmer weather assist him in regaining his vitality.

It is also a pleasure to announce that Mr. Christ Lipp of Willie street is home from the hospital, and feeling better, although not as yet entirely off the sick list.

Mr. Walter Mulso who has been at the Deaconess hospital for the past ten days or so is expected home about Saturday.

Another one of our convalescent folks is Mr. Fred Schaeffer. The friends who have visited him say that his good nature and cheerful disposition will be of great help to him in regaining his strength.

Wm. Joost of Elk Grove and well known Mt. Prospect has had a long rest waiting for a broken limb to mend, and fortunately it has mended well for he is again able to go about without assistance even the cane he has discarded. So we may expect him back in the harness of work on his farm this spring.

Let us be thankful Easter Sunday that there is not a single scarlet fever sign been put on any door within the last three weeks, and only one sign left to be taken off.

Huecker Ford Service, expert mechanics, truck service. Mt. Prospect, Illinois. (9-30*)

The result of the election on Saturday for school director of our village schools was as follows: William Kirchhoff, 94; Dudley Budlong, 6.

Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. the school directors will be on the school grounds to locate the spot for the new school building. They want as many as possible present so they may please the citizens. Progress is being made and we will see action soon as it is hoped to complete the new building by Sept. 1.

Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. the song services will be held at our church. The choir, and congregation will take part as well as E. Jackish who will render some very selected organ solos. The choir has put some very hard work in on this and we should all attend so as to show them we appreciate their efforts. This will be unusually good. So plan to attend one and all.

Cozy Corner garage and filling station for rent. Call Arlington Heights 316.

Do not forget next Tuesday is village election day and it is up to everyone of us to do our duty and go to the polls and vote. Two ballots will be received by the voters one for the proposition on the band tax and the candidates ballots. We should not hesitate to go to the polls on April 19.

The two new business buildings are making the excellent progress. The development association has already five buildings under construction and several more are being figured. All indications are that we should have 45 to 50 new homes in our village before long.

Prospect post 1337 V. F. W. members are not getting brushed up for memorial day in fact they are in training now. We hope they will have some real doings again this year.

A real spirit of cooperation exists in our village as on Tuesday evening the street and sidewalk committee together with attorney Thal held their meeting. In the hour or two they waited for objectors but none came, judging from this. Everybody wants these jobs completed in a hurry, we must remember there is a certain amount of detail and legal work which is absolutely necessary.

A further report on the meeting of the village board of Wednesday night will appear in our next issue.

The various business men reported things as normal and judging from the smiles on their faces we would say it was good.

Palm Sunday our church was beautifully decorated and from the people who were fortunate to get inside we learn that everything was fine and the highest of praise is heard on all sides for the decorations as well as for Rev. J. E. A. Muller who delivered his usual excellent sermon.

The Camp Fire girls have been organized in our village and they are known as the Pottawattamie camp. The first official report of their scribe Louise Spriedler follows: We had our first official meeting April 6. Marjorie Ehard, the president, called the meeting to order. The secretary, Ruth Ehard read the minutes of the previous gatherings. Florence Kirchhoff is the treasurer. Leona Maleske is custodian and was one of the committee. Many activities were planned for this spring and summer. Miss Bertha Ehard is guardian. After the meeting adjourned the "Letter Game" was played and the guardian then served refreshments. All present left for home at 9:30 and are anxious for the next meeting.

Are we going! Going where! going when! Indeed we are going to the dance that will be given by Prospect Post 1337 V. F. W. on Saturday evening, April 23, at the Dalebrook. Music will be rendered by Minnich orchestra. Admission Gents, 75 cents, Ladies 25 cents.

The next meeting of St. Matthews Ladies' Aid will be Thursday evening, April 21, at the usual time, in St. Matthews hall. Mrs. Anna Schaeffer, Mrs. Walter Sternberg and Mrs. Wm. Tagtmeier will serve at this meeting.

Just a few words as to the outcome of Saturday night's election. Emil Bergman, our home candidate, and Theodore Markworth of Des Plaines received the hearty support of the voters in this district and carried the election in the entire township, both gentlemen being re-elected to the high school board. In the district school election, Wm. R. Tagtmeier was re-elected as president of the board, so he is not going to retire yet, but is going to resume with new vigor his duties in that office.

The pupils of the public school are working on a play entitled, "Fun in a Chinese Laundry," which they will present at St. Matthews hall Friday, April 29, at 7:45 p. m. The play is a comedy and bound to keep you laughing from beginning to end. No doubt most of you have never seen the machinations or the workings of a Chinese laundry and this will be a splendid opportunity to learn something from these juvenile actors and actresses. Following the play there will be a bazaar and a box social. All the ladies are kindly asked to bring boxes. Start planning your box now for you know the money boxes there are at the social, the more fun and besides the proceeds will go toward the school. No admission charged, the evening's entertainment is free to all, just come, one and all, the ladies with boxes, and spend an evening of enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Steil entertained about 50 of their relatives and friends Sunday afternoon and evening at a party in honor of their son, Raymond, who was confirmed that morning. The other members of their class confirmed at St. Matthews church by Rev. Toepel are Clara Frank, Helen Galtich, Lawrence Koch, Harold Pearson, Albert Pramschaefer, Elsie Schaefer and Lillian Vehrs.

Wednesday, April 6 happened to be the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finnern and in honor of the occasion scores of friends from near and far came to help celebrate. Bunco proved to be the chief amusement, while some of the young folks danced in the barn. But no matter at which amusement, the time was most enjoyably spent and seemed to pass all too quickly. Mr. and Mrs. Finnern received many lovely gifts of chinaware among which was a pose of providing funds for the maintenance or employment of a municipal band for musical purposes.

Which election will be opened at 6 o'clock in the morning, and will continue open until 4 o'clock in afternoon of the same day.

Another robbery was committed in this vicinity Sunday night when burglars broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wolgast, on Cumberland Ave., and stole $150 in cash. We say broke into for it was breaking into the house, although the thief or thieves used a skeleton key to gain admittance and upon leaving, the door was carefully relocked. The Wolgast family were out visiting and upon returning late in the evening, Mrs. Wolgast discovered a quantity of burnt matches upon the dresser, and neither she nor Mr. Wolgast having used matches there, their suspicions were aroused and upon looking around they found that the lock on the dresser drawer had been picked or pried open and $150, the money Mr. Wolgast had drawn from the bank with intentions of purchasing a garden tractor was gone. Apparently nothing else had been touched which seemed to prove that the intruder must have known something about the money's presence in the house. The highway police were immediately notified and an investigation started. At time of writing, the police with the assistance of several of Wolgast's neighbors are hot on the trail of suspects and expect to nab the guilty person or persons very soon. From all appearances the job was not a professional, but amateur and it is hoped that the capture of the guilty party in this case may lead to discovery of the persons involved in the other robberies occurring during the last few months.

I appreciate the confidence shown in me by the voters of Wheeling School District 21, when they returned me to the school board. I have enjoyed my past work for the Wheeling school and I shall continue my efforts to make our school the best of its size in Cook county. Yours for a better and greater Wheeling.—Frank Forke.

Don't resort to that worn out subterfuge, "some other time" when the suggestion is made to you by a friend that you begin saving now by opening an account in our savings bank. There is no time like the present to start the thrift plan. You are young now and no doubt earn more than you should spend. We add interest to your deposits at the rate of 3 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Guillard want the people of Schiller Park to know that Mr. Guillard still lives here and receives his mail here and his household goods are stored here in town.

We hope this cold weather is not here to stay. Our coal bins are nearly empty and we are in hopes we won't have to buy more this spring.

We treat us to a warm spell soon.

After getting away to a rather weak start they got together and bunched hits until the opposing team had exhausted their reserve strength chasing the loss hide where it had pleased our boys to work it.

If our boys continue to pull together the way they have it should not be much of a task to outpoint their rivals in the coming church league campaign. Fritzie demonstrated the fact that he hadn't lost any of his offensive strength by knocking a triple and a homer. Butch certainly pitched a swell game Cado the midget short stop also played well.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

I've been asked to pen a sonnet or ode, on an Easter bonnet. Now, that's a fine joke—It's the same ancient poke and I never "ode" anything on it. But you wait till I get in the city "smart set" I'll buy one on "tick" And—I'll do it.

Observing hat back over many years, as pictured in fashion books I am convinced the hats worn by men were just as comical as those worn by women and that was plenty. Further I believe the hats now worn by both men and women are sensible. Perhaps, more so than ever before.

It has long been the custom to come in new apparel and especially new hats at Easter time. That is all very well. The trees put on their spring foliage. The grass comes up new velvet robed and the birds have laid off their rusty winter coats and come to us in gay plumage. All this is well again. But when old winds blow, snow flies, and winter lingers, the spring raiment seems out of place.

Funnier than our modern apparel at Easter time are the toys tricks and if I may say, the trash which we attach to the Sacred Day, and season. Bunnies, Rabbits, chickens, and all manner of eggs. Until I fear our chickens lose sight of the real meaning of day in their eagerness to procure the latest toy of all those that floor our markets. I do believe the more simple the story is given to the children the better. And do we realize the use of the egg, and all that we are attaching to it at Easter time, has come down to us from a pagan feast to glorify a heathen goddess long before or outlasting the Jewish passover?

Oh, I'm not opposing all these pretty costumes, the baby chicks, the bunnies, the colored eggs, the more the better, just so we don't fail in impressing the glorious story of Easter and the resurrection on the children's minds. Just so the little children are won to follow the Master, whether strewing palms on His Pathway, or bearing baskets of Easter eggs. It matters not, if they are only led to know. He lived a beautiful life of self denial and sacrifice for us, to show us how to live. There is the "Good Truth." To follow the way of life, even Eternal Life.

About these paths through the park. I know its very very bad to make them. And if I catch any one out off angles and going thru the park in any forbidden way, I'll report them to our police. So I will. I'm just that 100 per cent civic pride. I won't stand for any encroachment upon the edict to walk around the parks. And yet personally (bowing humbly to the higher powers), I like those foot-paths, made to suit the urge of duty, and the convenience of busy time driven man. To me they are picturesque.

There was a mighty good article in the Saturday evening News, by Glenn Frank on "The Rights of Man." In it he calls attention to our Lord's rebuke to the Pharisees (Glenn Frank calls them 100 per cent Religionists) when they questioned the right of His Disciples to pluck the wheat on the Sabbath day, even when they were hungry. You remember our Lord answered them "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath." I dare not further quote lest I be misunderstood. If you haven't read that article and your tidy women folks haven't destroyed the News of April 9, get it and see if you don't think it pretty good.

A young man, not long a resident of Arlington Heights, asked the other day "What has the Woman's Club ever done for Arlington Heights?" Why, my dear young man, the club celebrated its 40th anniversary not long since, as a live factor in this town, for over five or six years, as a circle of earnest women banded together for mutual help and for the good of the community for 34 years. It has been an organized club earnest in good works before you were born. Always looking after the families in this community, who were in need of help. Always in sympathy with every educational effort. A friend to the teacher and the schools.

For nearly 18 years the Woman's club has gathered together, and given out to the public to read a large collection of books. A real public library kept up and cared for by the members of the club. This collection contains the best books of classical literature. The club has placed works of art in the schools, sent Christmas boxes to the needy in the city; contributed largely toward equipping the playground and also to the welfare work, at the present time contributing one hundred dollars toward the community nurse's salary and the welfare work in this place.

One thing we should all try to do at this blessed Easter time. That is to be kind. No matter whether we are on the reception committee or belong to the Brotherhood of Workingmen, or if we belong to this or that lodge, or order, let us just be kind. It makes you feel a whole lot better inside, and it puts a sort of sunshine glow to your countenance. Oh, yes, it pays to be kind, every day, to everybody. A kind word spoken is like gold put in the bank. It yields most gratifying returns. Don't you feel sorry for any one who carries a grouch and growls rather than speaks when you meet him. Bury the grouches; and resurrect all the kindly loving thoughts this glorious Easter.

Be sure to speak the loving word. When loving words are seldom heard.

There it may linger in some mind. And gather others of its kind. Till loving words will echo where Hearts had been heaving in despair And all day, on your earthly track

Their music will come echoing back Like bread upon the water east, Or seed upon the wayside stream They will return to you at last. The greatest blessing you have known.

Clean up, Paint up, week and a busy week, it is for street commissioner Hoeneke, scraping, brushing and removing the accumulation of loose dirt from the streets. While watching this process the other day an innocent bystander suggested it would now be a fine thing to sweep and flush the streets. My! My! Think of the old days when mud was worked into "loblolly" down to the hard pan subsoil of clay. "Look at on that picture, and on this," and realize something of the progress of Arlington Heights. And yet there are some things we old timers like to cling to. Heard Mr. Fred Hildebrandt say he had a good well Mr. L. B. Wayman put down for him on his new home in North State Road. He said he couldn't get along without a good well, even though he had city water in his house. The well water was so fine and cool.

All great moves have birth in the minds of the people, and often work out despite the lead of any man. It may be the mayor leads, and again he may be borne along scarce knowing whence the impelling force that carries him. It is often said "like people, like pastor," it is equally true of the man who becomes mayor of our town. The people make him what he is, and it may be sometimes from lack of vision block his finest schemes of progress. Down at Park Ridge they are letting loose the torrents of speech on the election or re-election of Mayor. We don't do that here. We are nice people!

Another of our old time teachers passes. Miss Emma Dunton was a most efficient teacher in the Arlington Heights public schools. When we came to the town 35 years ago. Many who knew and appreciated her splendid abilities never ceased to regret the great mistake made when she was allowed to go to Evanston. Because, as I heard the wife of one of the members of the school board say, they were too short sighted to appreciate Miss Dunton, and with a narrow gesture toward economy, cut, or refused to pay her adequate wages for her work. A lovable, intelligent woman. Whose untimely going is deeply regretted by all who knew her. So many of the teachers we just knew here have passed on. Miss Beaumont, Miss Shirra, Mrs. O'Keefe, Miss Cooley, and now Miss Dunton. They are all held in loving remembrance by the people of Arlington Heights.

O, Eastern morn, O glorious day! Angels have rolled the stone away And they who stood with weeping eyes, In joy beheld Our Lord arise.

O, Easter morn, O, Easter morn Joy to the sad ones standing near, Joy to the world of hearts that mourn Who hear, "weep not, He is not here!" "Go ye"—aye always "go" and "do"— The Master's words to me and you Why should we weep the grave beside Our loved ones do not there abide. Go, tell the message o'er and o'er Following Him, they've gone before, "Go," spread abroad the glorious word, Easter's great hope, our Risen Lord.

Why linger weeping by the grave? There's a despairing world to save Go where in doubt, sin sick implore Tell of Our Lord gone on before.

O, Easter morn! O, promised day! When angels roll the stone away And we, in gladness and surprise Shall meet our own, all radiant-wise.

—Elinore Crisler Haynes.

To Remove Street Rubbish by Wards

Formerly when the village removed the rubbish each Spring, a general notice was given to all citizens to place their rubbish for collection during a certain period. Under this practice the streets presented a condition rather unsightly for too long a period due to the fact that it took considerable time to remove the vast amount of rubbish.

In order, therefore, to improve the situation not only a regards the sanitary feature but cleanliness as well, it is proposed to undertake the removal of the rubbish this year by dividing the territory into sections and notifying the citizens of each particular section, when to place their rubbish on the curb in front of their residence for collection.

This will therefore service as notice to citizens in the sections indicated below to prepare their rubbish for collection on the dates specified:

First section, from Dunton west, and Campbell north, April 20th.

Second, from Dunton west, and Campbell south, April 25th.

Third, from Dunton east, and Campbell south, April 28th.

Fourth, from Dunton east, and Campbell north, May 2nd.

All citizens are earnestly requested to be governed by the above notice.

STREET COMMITTEE.

Olivet to Calvary to Be Sung in Churches

The famous Easter cantata, "Olivet to Calvary" by J. H. Maumder will be sung by the combined choirs of Palatine and Arlington Heights in the Methodist Church at Palatine on Good Friday evening, at Arlington Heights M. E. church on Easter Sunday evening, and in the Methodist church at Antioch on Wednesday evening, April 20.

The same musicians, with some added, will sing this as sang the cantata Christmas that was so well liked. Hugh Aspinwall is the director and tenor soloist, and this guarantees success. Mr. Aspinwall has remarked at recent rehearsals that this cantata will be even better than the one sung Christmas.

The cantata is a wonderful music. It portrays the spirit of the occasion and is most pleasing indeed. There will be several soloists, although there is not as much solo work in this one as in the other.

The choirs have been asked to go to three other churches besides their own, but only one can be accommodated. So it was decided to go to Antioch where Mr. Krahl who was formerly at Palatine is now pastor. The public is most cordially invited to attend any or all of these renderings.

Illinois Should Copy Minnesota Crossing Law

A little over a year ago the State Commission of Minnesota passed a law authorizing the Highway Commission to establish "Stop Crossing," that is wherever so designated by the highway commission "Stop" signs were erected on the highways on either side of the railroad tracks, requiring all highway traffic to come to a stop before crossing over the tracks. The work was begun and a great many stop crossings were established during the year 1926 and the results in the way of reducing crossings accidents have been most gratifying. With the good work just begun in that state we feel sure that the decrease in accidents in 1926 over that of 1925 will prove beyond a doubt that it is one of the solutions to the grade crossing accident problem. Following is comparison of crossing accidents in that state during 1926 as compared with 1925.

1926—29 killed; 107 injured.
Decrease—5 killed; 6 injured.

Automobiles registered in 1925, 576,476; automobiles registered in 1926 637,000; increase 60,524.

This shows a marked decrease in accidents to autoists at highway grade crossings in Minnesota the very year the law became effective in the face of the increase of over 10% in automobile registration.

We believe the experience in Minnesota should be broadcasted to the fullest extent possible to other states, through the microphone and the public press, and efforts made to do more in the way of establishing "stop" crossings where conditions warrant. May our own good state of Illinois take notice of what Minnesota has done and benefit by their experiments. In the mean time if every driver will begin to cultivate the habit of stop, look, and listen at all grade crossings as he does at a through street crossing, accidents at those places will be almost entirely eliminated.
